

Managing & Leading Teams

Duration: 2 days

Maximum group size: 12 people

Course overview

Ideal for those currently in a management position and who want to learn how managing and leading effectively can draw the best out of others. Delegates will learn the importance of leading by example and empowering others to take more responsibility which in turn will lead to a motivated and engaged team.

Delivery methodology

Futureproof's training workshops require all delegates to take a full and active role throughout. Our mix of trainer led discussion, facilitation, coaching and skills practice ensures that all delegates enjoy an interactive and supportive learning experience.

Who would benefit from attending?

All people managers looking to make the transition from managing to leading by empowering & developing their team.

Core development objectives covered

- Managing v's leading the team
- Defining effective leadership & how it impacts on the business
- The importance of positive role modelling
- Identifying different leadership styles & behaviours
- Understanding your personality preferences & leadership style
- Adapting your style to get the best from others
- Empowering your team to take more responsibility
- Lead your team to solve problems, not just spot them!
- Effective performance management & setting clear KPI's
- Inspiring others to be successful
- Developing & growing the skills of your team
- Identifying training / coaching requirements

Want to tailor the content of this workshop and incorporate internal procedures, competency framework, organisational values & work-related challenges?

Get in touch with one of our Learning & Development Managers – 01623 409 824 • info@futureproof-training.co.uk